

FACTSHEET

Veranda
POINTE AUX BICHES
HOTEL MAURITIUS

A Crusoe escape on the island of Mauritius

Experience "barefoot" holidays... as if shipwrecked on a desert island! That is what this hotel offers – the possibility of living in the open air in harmony with the unspoiled tropical surroundings. The Veranda Pointe aux Biches invites you to discover what family and couple life can be in a relaxed and yet lively environment – and provides you with the ideal location in which to establish your place in the sun and to appreciate the simple pleasures of a real holiday... sleeping, playing, dreaming, reading... and enjoying the pleasures of the fragrant cuisine of the islands.

The charmingly natural and rustic architecture subtly embraces the outside areas - with a deck that puts the finishing touch to the bar and restaurant – and where fine golden beach sand and lush vegetation are ingeniously intermingled in the heart of the hotel area.

Mauritius is situated 3000 kilometres to the east of the African continent. The diversity of its rich lands extends over 1865km². Its superb 160 kilometres coastline, multi-coloured coral reefs, and picturesque mountains make it the gem of the Indian Ocean.

With average temperatures of 22°C in winter and 31°C in summer, the coastal regions are the ideal destinations for holidays all year round.

The “rainbow” population of approximately 1.3 million consists of Indo-Mauritians, African-Mauritians, Sino-Mauritians and Mauritians with a European background or from mixed origins.
